YVONNE RICHARDSON COMMUNITY CENTER OVERVIEW

The Yvonne Richardson Community Center (YRCC) is a recreation facility in Southeast Fayetteville, AR that focuses on reducing barriers to participating in programming governed by positive policies and people. Through the Friends of YRCC (501c3) funds the costs of programs; thus, allowing YRCC to offer free and reduced cost services.

The YRCC's mission is to shape today's youth for tomorrow's challenges through recreational, educational and social opportunities and resources.

The YRCC is a program of the City of Fayetteville's Parks and Recreation Department and provides a variety of programs targeting youth, adults, and families alike. Community and adult programming include pickleball and holiday events such as an Easter Egg Hunt and Holiday Bingo. Additionally, YRCC relies on collaborations with organizations such as the University of Arkansas to connect the community with resources.

Youth programming at the YRCC includes an afterschool program, Homeschool PE class, spring break camp and 8 weeks of summer camp. The afterschool program provides children in Kindergarten to 5th grade with homework assistance, meals, special interest clubs (gardening, coding, cooking, etc.), and field trips. Homeschool PE meets weekly and teaches participants the fundamentals of sports and recreation-based activities, teamwork, health education, and nutrition while partnering with local organizations to enhance and expand learning opportunities.

YRCC's Spring Break camp provides youth ages K-5th grade with one action packed week during spring break in preparation for summer camp. YRCC's premier program is Summer Fun4Kids camp which includes 8 weeks of themed day camps for campers who have completed Kindergarten through 8th grade where campers access age appropriate activities, field trips, meals, snacks, positive mentors, and opportunities to meet new friends! The YRCC also provides a leadership program in conjunction with summer camp where High school students can apply to the Junior Counselor program and receive hands on opportunities to assist in the development of children.
